VOL. IV. NO. 134.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 1898.

MONDAY'S HARLEM RACING.

The racing at Harlem yesterday was over a fast track and in a muggy temperature. Five of the six events on the card produced interesting finishes.

The last furlong of the first race was full of action, five horses being bunched and under punishment. The favorite exhibited great speed along the back stretch. Rounding the turn she appeared a certain winner. She retired almost at the head of the home stretch. Teulada, the second choice, was green at the post. She jumped up and down when asked to break and got off so badly that she was pulled up before going a quarter.

Floronso was much the best of his company in the second race. He was shut off in the back stretch and had to make three distinct moves to win. Half way around the turn he dashed through one opening. Near the furlong post another spurt brought him through into second place. Then he challenged Topmast and beat him.

Miss Marks was believed to be in a soft place in the third race. She won after a desperate struggle. Off in front, she barely lasted long enough to have a head to spare at the winning post.

Morte Fonse was a hot favorite for the fourth race. Severely punished the last three-sixteenths, he won. He might not have done so had not Southern Spy had a bad break at the start and been shut off in the final drive. Colonel Clark called Rutter out of the line before going to the post and instructed him to use his whip coming home. Rutter obeyed the letter and spirit of his instruction. Inconstancy, Jack of Hearts and Southern Spy were also flogged. Jack of Hearts' race was a great improvement over previous performances here.

A palpable foul marred the fifth race and resulted in the disqualification of the odds-on favorite, Dave Waldo. Gray said the colt was to blame, but spectators who had a good view said Gray was the offender. For nearly seven furlongs Dave Waldo galloped in front, with his mouth wide open. Coming into the stretch he swung wide. The first sixteenth of the stretch he came along swinging. Half way down Gray turned in his saddle and looked back on the outside. Seeing no horses there he quickly turned the other way. Then he saw Barataria and Graziella lapped and responding to energetic riding. When less than a furlong away Dave Waldo crossed to the inside. His left flank bumped against Barataria's right shoulder, throwing him against Graziella. Both came near going down, particularly the filly, on which Rose finished out of his stirrups. Waldo then went on and finished an easy winner. In all probability he would have won easily had he been kept straight. Before the horses had been started back toward the scales a crowd gathered around the judges stand. There was a slight demonstration. The boys were called into the stand. Gray said he hit his colt with the spur and the colt swerved. The judges gave him the benefit of the explanation and did not punish him. The colt's owners and backers suffered, for he was disqualified and the race given to Barataria.

The last race furnished a surprise. Time-maker and Frank Thompson were chosen as the contenders, The Devil being conceded an outside chance. Timemaker delayed the start and eventually got away last. Frank Thompson did little better. When the field got away, Donna Rita went to the front and was never headed. Timemaker closed steadily for five furlongs. Then he weakened. The Devil, in hand to the stretch, outfinished Frank Thompson.

Imp is now on her way to Sheepshead Bay. She was shipped yesterday evening and is due at Jersey City tonight. If she does well in the humid Atlantic climate the filly will be a starter in the Suburban Handicap, to be run Saturday, June 18. Her impost will be 102 pounds. Nobody has been engaged to ride her, but that matter will be given early attention and a competent lightweight will have the mount. The Suburban is worth $7,000 to the winner. Saturday night Mr. Brossman did not intend to ship the mare east. Sunday his friends had time to talk over the matter with him, and advice and argument influenced him to change his mind. Paul Miles is probably as much responsible as anybody for Imp's departure.

Frank Phillips arrived from California yesterday. He stopped at Leadville and Denver.

W. Martin was at the track, but did not have any mounts. He got back yesterday morning from Cincinnati, where he rode Plaudit in a walk-over for the Buckeye Stakes Saturday. Wednesday night he will go to Latonia to ride the great 3-year-old in the Latonia Derby. He will ride Plaudit in all stake engagements excepting those in which Pat Dunne may have a starter.

Jockey T. Burns got in yesterday morning and was a busy figure in the racing.

A dispatch from a good source in New York last night declared that Bowling Brook had broken down. THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Outside of Jean Beraud, "Kelston," of the Morning Telegraph, does not have an exalted opinion of the 2-year-olds that have shown on the eastern tracks so far, but says:

"I have reason to believe that they will make a better record later on. The half-brother to Ben Brush, by Sir Dixon—Roseville, is, I feel satisfied, a good colt, and one that will take a lot of beating from the best. Macleod of Dare (half-brother to Halma) will also prove a racehorse, but I doubt if he will show at his best until he has another year over his head. Gold Car, I think, will also show different form to what he has already done. Indeed, bred as he is, it would be strange should he fail to develop some class.

"Charite, in Mr. Walden's string is, on her private form, a high class filly, and should she train all right she may take a lot of beating in the Futurity. Whiplash, which won the other day, will also prove but little behind the best before the season is out. "Matt" Simpson, who owns Whipcord, the dam of Whiplash, has a yearling half brother to her by the Ill Used horse Daniel. He is of just the same type as his raking half sister, only he has a bit more finish and quality.

Glenheim has not proved anything like his real form yet, although at that he has shown far better than Plaudit did in his first attempts. Good judges who saw him work at Louisville this spring tell me that he showed a first class colt, and W. Walker, the owner of Mr. Phinizy, which won out Thursday, whose opinion I value highly, thinks that when Glenheim is right good he is a first class colt.

"The Hanovers of all ages have, however, been this season rather unlucky, as several other highly tried colts have had to be stopped with bucked shins or coughs, while Handball, which, on his 2-year-old form, ought to have been heard from in stake events, is not within thirty pounds of himself on account of being sore in his shoulders, so that he is all tied up in his action.

"Mr. Bennett's handsome 3-year-old, Handsel, had also to be stopped when going great guns, and about good enough to beat the best of his age. He is now in work again, but he may not race before the meeting at Sheepshead Bay."

BROOKLYN FORM CHART.

GRAVESEND, L. I., June 6.—Sixth day. Brooklyn Jockey Club. Spring Meeting.

Weather clear; track fair.

Presiding Judge, R. W. Simmons. Starter, C. J. Fitzgerald.

Time, 12½, 24½, 36½, 1:02½.

Winner—Br. c, by Sir Dixon—Merry Maiden. Start fair. Won driving. Point was probably best and finished gamely. He requires strong handling and is only a fair colt. Clay ran a good race and hung on well. He will do best in mud. Muggins was unlucky at the start and galloping first part. He stopped badly at the end. Is a good looker and should improve. Morning showed a nice burst of speed, but quit last furlong. Watch him. Pirate M was eased through the stretch. The others appeared to be of no account.

Scratched—Formero, 115; Russella Walden, 112.

Overweights—Muggins, 3 pounds; Sparrow Wing, 2; Pirate M, 3.

6219 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. $500 added. 3-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances.

Time, 26½, 50½, 1:04½, 1:18, 1:44½.

Winner—Ch. c, by Meddler—Frolic Grace. Start straggling. Won easily. Intrusive is a fine looker, and was easily the best. He requires strong handling, and finished game and strong. Laudeman was nicely handled and lucky. He hung in the last furlong. He appeared to be winning an eighth out, and is improving. Merlin ran a fair race and was lucky, stopping at the end. Crawford was coming fast at the finish. He was weakly handled at the end. Watch him. Ryan showed most speed; was probably short. Watch him. He is a good looker. Chalmers had no chance at the start, and was closing stoutly. He got a bad ride and favors a route. Slasher ran a poor race. He lacked speed throughout. The others had no chance at the start.

6220 THIRD RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs. 2-year-olds. Selling. Bedford Stakes. $1,000 Added.

Time, 11½, 23½, 56½.

Winner—Ch. c, by Inverness—Butterfly. Start bad. Won easily. Larva is a grand looking colt and was lucky but easily the best. Chemisette closed strong after some interference on turn; got poor ride. She is promising. Autumn favors a route and strong handling. He was off badly and closed very fast. He had no chance with the ride he got. Tyrba beat the barrier and stopped badly at the end. Is best in mud. Imitation improved his position throughout and showed fine form. Was off badly and ran around field. Dr. Parker had no chance at the start or with ride. He acts like a coward. Watch him. Sir Hubert was away poorly and ran green. He was coming at the end and is a fine looker. Watch him. Clap Trap stopped like a shot in the stretch. He will probably improve. Has a lot of speed.

Scratched—Armament, 108; A N B, 105; Jack Point, 103; Hopkins, 102; Extreme, 100; Bettie Gray, 97.

Overweights—Chemisette, 2 pounds; Tyrba, 2; Dr. Parker, 2.

6221 FOURTH RACE—1 1-8 Mile. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Time, 26½, 52½, 1:04½, 1:18, 1:44½, 1:57½.

Winner—Br. g, 4, by Hindoo—Ben-Ma-Chree. Start good. Won easily. Ronald was easily the best and won in a gallop. He was eased up. He is a greatly improved horse. Howard S. ran a good game race. He may improve, but wants a different kind of track. He showed improvement. Filament led on sufferance and belongs among cheaper horses. Howard Mann bolted at the start. He had no chance after it. Is not of much present account. He may win a race in mud, if lucky.

Scratched—Ben Eder, 126; Bannock, 111; Ortolan, 106.

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE RACING, OR THE ART OF MAKING MONEY AT THE RACE TRACK' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer of this handsome and sensible little book, which is issued free to readers of DAILY RACING FORM on application to the publishers, A. F. Withe, & Co., 720 Omaha Building, Chicago, Ill. Everyone interested in the noble sport should read it.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

When Mr. Sydney Paget's speedy 4-year-old mare, Lou Bramble, was registered as a yearling with the Jockey Club, it was under the name of Buella. Accordingly when she races in the east she will start for at least three times under both names, carded Lou Bramble (Buella).—New York Herald.

Friday's Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune says: "After the handicap yesterday W. A. Porter's good horse J. A. Gray pulled up very lame and will probably be on the shelf for several days.

The 3-year-old filly Bellchasse died Thursday night from the effects of wrenching herself and breaking her stifle joint in a race that day.

The once noted Clifton, N. J., racetrack has been cut up into building lots.

E. C. Cowdin, the owner of Requitall, is a member of Roosevelt's troop of rough riders.

FOR SALE,

ORA M, bay mare, 4 years old, by imp. Order, dam Trinket, by imp. Great Tom, etc. Trinket is the dam of Ill-Wind, the dam of East Wind, Belle Bramble, Ben Bramble and Ed Farrell; also the dam of Toco, Lillithgow, Frank Ellis, St. Veronica and Fellowcharm, a sire. Ora M. is sound and gentle, stands 15½, weighs 1,050 lbs.; bright bay, black legs, mane and tail, no white. Is a maiden, never started, has lots of speed and is well broken to harness. Will make a great race or broodmare. For price, etc., call or address

Time, 26½, 36½, 49, 1:03½, 1:15½.

Winner—B. f. by Tenny—Fair Vision.

Start fair. Won handily. Miss Tenny was best and drew away like a good filly at the finish. Dolando is not himself yet. He ran a good race but dislikes weight. Continental showed surprising form and hung on gamely. Doggett saved ground with him on the rail. Dr. Sharp was badly handled and lost ground on the turn. He had no chance with the ride. Needs a strong jockey and dislikes this track. Imperator, off badly, took the long route and had no chance with his ride. He requires careful handling and was coming at the end. Nick showed plenty of speed and appeared to be galloping the first half. He stopped to nothing in the stretch. He probably sulked and is unreliable from now on. Ten Spot also stopped to nothing.

Scratched—Mainstay, 107; X Ray, 107; Hanlon, 104; Handpress, 94; Reprisal, 104; Rotterdam, 109.

Overweights—Continental, 3 pounds.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:15, 1:41½, 1:48.

Winner—Br. c. 4, by Kilwarlin—Oriole.

Start good. Won easily. It was a very fast race. Ogden, favored in every way, was never pressed. He was perfectly handled and ran an extra good race. Tillo was unlucky at start and overweighted. He laid away too long and was stopping at the end. Ego was closing stoutly at the finish, after being beaten on the turn. He is good. Bannock was eased at the end. He couldn't keep up at any part of race. Ortolan was killed off chasing Ogden.

Scratched—Doggett, 111; Hanwell, 111; Refugee, 103; Tanis, 103; Free Lance, 104; Whistling Con, 94; Louise N, 101; Flax Spinner, 94.

Time, 1:31, 25, 37, 49, 1:03, 1:16.
Winner—Ch. f, by Buchanan—Eleanor II.
Post 6 minutes. Start poor. The first five were driving hard. It was a bad lot and any of the first four had a chance to win the last sixteenth. Miss Fairmount was the luckiest of the bunch. She had clear sailing through the stretch while Pensó Rose and Miss Hayden were interfered with. With a clear path the latter would have won. She made a strong bid in the stretch, but was bumped into and obliged to pull up at the sixteenth pole. Pensó Rose was buck jumping in a pocket all through the stretch. Exquisite came around the field on the turn and avoided all interferences through the stretch. Dutchie and Teulada were practically left. Dorsey's ride on The Last was very bad. He took the long route and pumped the filly completely out in the back stretch.

Scratched—Denise, 105; Rose Riley, 105.
Overweights—Miss Hayden, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Fonso—Florence E.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly after an early drive; second and third driving hard. Floronso had to be a lot the best to win. He was sharply cut off in the back stretch, and after that Gray was compelled to pick his way. He did it cleverly, too. Topmast had a lot of speed, and ran a good race. Warren Point is a consistent performer. His best races are at three-quarters. Festa, slow to begin, finished strong. Watch Tom Toher at three-quarters in cheaper company. He is eligible to cheap races.
Scratched—Blue Jacket, 101.

Winner—B. f, by Galore—Phoebe Marks.
Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; second and third were ridden out. Miss Marks was tiring fast at the end. Caywood used judgment on the filly and never drew his whip until the last twenty yards. Vie Lamont seems to be a good filly. She is a trifle under sized, but has speed and courage. Charlo ran a fair race. Pirate Judge was short on speed. It was practically a three-horse race all the way.
Scratched—Appeal, 100; Defender II, 103; Prince Harry, 103.
Overweights—Miss Marks, 5 pounds.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Fonso—Flyer.
Off at first break to a good start. Won driving; second and third driving even harder. Morte Fonse was the best and in a soft spot. Rutter hustled him along early and the old horse set his own pace. It was a slow one. Inconstancy, well handled, ran a creditable race. She was coming fast at the finish. Jack of Hearts seemed to have a winning chance when straightened away, but tired in the final pinch. Southern Spy was off in the rear division and had a rough journey. Harbinger seemed to be running easy down the back stretch and could have gone to the front at any stage. Throw his race out. He is being pointed for a cheap three-quarter race. He can win one of that kind. Tab him closely in such a race.
Scratched—Paskola, 111.

*Disqualified for foul. †Finished fourth, but was misplaced.
Time, 1:34, 25, 37, 49, 1:02, 1:15, 1:42.
Winner—B. g, 3, by Lisbon—Aala-Lala.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Dave Waldo was running easily at the finish. All the others were driving. Waldo was the best and could easily have won without fouling those behind him. On the turn he was galloping. Gray swung wide allowing Graziella and Barataria to come up on the inside. When straightened away Gray looked to the right and saw nothing coming. He then took Dave Waldo to the inside. This interfered with Barataria and he in turn bumped into Graziella. The latter almost went down. So did Barataria. Burns on Barataria started to go around Dave Waldo entering the stretch and that is why Gray made a wide turn. Albert S. finished strong and it seemed as though he was a full length in front of Graziella at the finish.

Time, 1:35, 25, 37, 49, 1:02, 1:15, 1:27.
Winner—B. f, 4, by St. Blaise—Active.
Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won hand ridden; second and third driving. There was a general mix-up at the start from which Donna Rita escaped. She was in the middle of the bunch and clear of the others when the barrier arose. Caywood took advantage of this and made a runaway race of it. The filly had a lot of speed and was at her best too. Frank Thompson and Timemaker were both in bad positions at the start. Timemaker got straightened out early and had little or no excuse. Frank Thompson, though, was pocketed all of the way. He ran much better than the figures show. The Devil is good and ran a good race. He has been badly placed. Depending had some speed. He was high in flesh, though, and hardly ready to race. Watch him.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

Time, 25.50, 1:04, 1:16, 1:42.
Winner—Blk. c, 4, by Tom Paxton—Lillie V.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second also driving. Tole Simmons was probably the best, but Frost could not help him at the finish. Colonel Gay is a shifty kind of a horse. Osric II. did not run kindly under waiting orders. King's Guard closed strong. Flora G. had speed. Montedonico ran his race.
Scratched—Bridgeton, 109; Belvadell, 108; Inspirer, 108; Russella, 103; Joe Shelby, 101; Lavenna, 88.
Overweights—Flora G., 5 pounds.

Time, 12.25, 25.1, 50.1, 1:03, 1:09.
Winner—B. c, by Panique—Waiting II.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second ridden out. Also Ran II. was at a false price considering his California form. He was well seasoned. Flying Bird quit badly. Dr. Sam finished game and strong. Nancy Seitz had a lot of speed. Blenheim will improve. Bulgarian ran a good race.
Scratched—O'Connor, 103.

Time, 24.4, 50.1, 1:16, 1:43, 1:47.
Winner—B. h, 5, by Sir Dixon—Alga.
Post 13 minutes. Start poor. Won ridden out; second and third driving. Mamie G. was the best. She was crowded back to last place on the first turn and ran around the entire field. She closed game and true. Judith C. had enough at six furlongs. Lease man ran a fair race. Uncle Abb was well ridden.
Scratched—St. Augustine, 111; Joe O'Sot, 108; Amber Glints, 106; Helen H. Gardner, 106; Wecatchie, 106.

Time, 24.4, 49.1, 1:15, 1:41, 1:47.
Winner—B. c, 4, by Hanover—Lady Abbess.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won pulled up. The other two were doing their best. The Elector always held his field safe. He came away when ready. Fount was run into the ground racing with him. Laureate ran a creditable race under an incompetent jockey.

6228 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 24.4, 49, 1:02, 1:14.
Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Keene—Occasion.
Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second driving. Nick Carter was the best. Silver Set's victory over him Saturday was a lucky one. They raced as a team to the last hundred yards. Then the filly failed badly. Nick Carter crowded her at the finish, but it did not effect the result. Lady Callahan is improving.
Scratched—Ed Farrell, 106; Bishop Reed, 105; H. S. Tobacco, 105; Alcides, 103; Enchanter, 102; Hester, 102.

Time, 24.4, 49.1, 1:15, 1:21.
Winner—B. f, 4, by Hanover—Arragon.
Post 9 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; the next three were driving. It was a well balanced lot of rather bad horses. Half the field had a chance a sixteenth out. Harrie Floyd, off badly, was pumped out getting up. Full Hand had clear sailing on the outside. Mitchell is of no account. Utopia will improve.
Scratched—Forseen, 109; Empress Josephine, 94; Nightgown, 94.
Overweights—Fourth Ward, 34 pounds; Harrie Floyd, 2.
